Trucking History

1980 - Began Big Horn Transportation which later was sold

1989 - Started Warren Way West in Laurel, MT, across from Burlington Railroad with four drivers serving the Rosebud Energy Power Plant

1993 - Warren Way West moved to 32nd and King in Billings, MT into a building with Ag Express. Name was changed to Warren Transport, Inc.

1995 - Warren Transport, Inc., moved into a modular office building at 2348 N. Frontage Road in Lockwood simultaneous to the beginning of a contract with Billings Generation, Inc.

2000 - JDW, Inc., purchased 2348 N. Frontage Road lot (June) and moved WT into a newly constructed building (October). Farstad Oil, renter, expanded their office space into the former WT modular office.

2001 - In October Warren Transport, Inc. purchased McGinley Trucking out of Belgrade and established the

WT- West Branch in Belgrade, MT.

2002 - In July, WT acquired Little Rock Trucking to serve customers in that area out of the WT-South Branch in Warren.

2003 - In May, JDW, Inc. completed the Construction and leasing of a new facility to Farstad Oil at 2350 N.

Frontage Road. The oldest shop office area at 2349 N. Frontage was then leased to HOT Express Trucking. ---

A new "JDW Industrial Park" boulevard sign went up at the frontage road entrance identifying businesses at the Billings location. --- A new steel storage building went up behind the WT-Billings Office.

2005 - Billings headquarters expended into a newly constructed JDW-owned 2-bay drive through shop with attached offices giving HOT Express Trucking additional space in the oldest shop. --- WT-East Brand in Hardin was established in November to begin servicing the new contract with Westmoreland Resources and the Centennial Power Plant.

2006 - JDW, Inc., purchased an existing 2 ½ bay shop/office property in Belgrade's Bruce Industrial Park for WT-West Branch operations.
